Across the diocese...

*ISLAND SPIRITUALITY NETWORK Saturday 11th October at St. John's Mill, 10am-1pm. The speaker will be Revd Dr David Smith, Honorary Lecturer School of Divinity, History and Philosophy, University of Aberdeen, whose theme will be "God or Mammon – the critical choice facing world Christianity". Our morning will help us to begin to discern what change might look like as we seek to engage faithfully with a rapidly transforming global church. All welcome.

This week we pray for...

*for the Rt Revd Dame Sarah Mullally on her appointment as the next Archbishop of Canterbury. We ask God to bless her with the wisdom and insight necessary for this spiritual leadership. We pray too for those who will find such an appointment difficult to accept.

*God's generous and abundant provision as we enter the season of harvest and creationtide. We give thanks for all that we are blessed with, conscious of a world where so many people live in poverty and distress. We pray for our farmers, fishermen and food producers; those caring for animals; for all involved in food distribution; for our shopkeepers and market stall holders. We pray that the Holy Spirit will guide us to be better stewards of the natural environment.

*those people across the world affected by natural disasters; we especially pray for those affected by the earthquake in the Philippines and whose loved ones live here and feel helpless to assist them.

*for all bereaved families and those people feeling the darkness of death. RIP Marc Lowey & Revd Canon Brian Kelly-whose funeral will be on Thursday 9th Oct 12noon at the cathedral.
