Parish News

Work on the heating and lighting at Marown Church continues and so the church remains closed until the work is complete and the site safe. The new heaters and lights are being installed plus the external trenches to being dug and new cables laid in the older part of the churchyard.

Worship continues at the Crosby Chapel and at St Luke's Church Baldwin. Please remember that this church is open daily for private worship and peaceful reflection along with Old St Runius.

*Sunday afternoon 12th July is the 80th Marown Parish Day, do drop in to join in the fun, see displays and be part of this community event.

*the PCC meet again on Monday 13th July 7pm at Marown Vicarage, please note the change of date and venue.

*Old St Runius is becoming part of the Small Pilgrim Places Network and St Luke's Church will be joining too. There will be leaflets in the churches and more information generally about the Network in the coming weeks. You can go online for further information at;

Across the Diocese

*Don't forget the Safeguarding survey that The Church of England has commissioned, thank you to those who have taken part. If you haven't already completed it here is the link again, it closes on 14th July. <https://ineqe.com/churchofengland/Sodor-and-Man/>

*Monday 6th July is Tynwald Day. Amongst the many activities and displays there will be the launch of the Bible Society translation of Luke's Gospel in Manx and English. There will be a stall in St John's Methodist Chapel with copies of the Gospel and leaflets Manx Translators Trail-do drop in for a look.

*Churches Alive in Mann invite you to 'Pray for the nation' on Tuesday 7th July 7pm starting at St John's Church and concluding on the hill. Our Churches will be united together in prayer for our nation, please join us.

*Chapter Court is on Wednesday 22nd July 6.30pm at St George's Church Douglas. This is when our churchwardens take their oaths of office. It is open to everyone so do come along and show your support for our 5 churchwardens.

During this week we pray...

*for our island as we celebrate Tynwald Day. We pray God's blessing upon all those involved in governance, law, our cultural and spiritual life, care for the environment and for every resident and visitor.

*for the Open the Book Team as they prepare the last assembly of this school year. We give thanks for the warm reception they receive in our primary schools and look forward to the new academic year in September.

*for peace throughout the world; for a desire for cooperation, mutual respect and reconciliation amongst world leaders and all who have power and influence: for the truce between America and Iran to hold; for a ceasefire between Israel and Lebanon; the injured, dispossessed and traumatised through war or natural disaster and for a global desire for peace and justice.

*for those weighed down by the cares of earthly life; for those ill at home or in hospital and for those whom we love but who have departed this earthly life.
