

Are you inspired by the outdoors...

Journeying was founded in 1988. Since then, it has been an adventure! We have travelled to many of the most remote and seemingly inaccessible places of pilgrimage in Britain and Ireland; shuddered and laughed together at some of the predicaments encountered along the way; and known the delight of discovering places where for centuries people have felt especially close to God - sacred places, places of pilgrimage.

Non-profit-seeking and ecumenical, our focus tends to be within Britain and Ireland and over the years we have taken people on pilgrim journeys in small informal groups, to most corners of these wild and beautiful islands. Not everything is remote, however and in our programme, you will also find journeys through the quieter lanes and villages, not far from town or city.

Journeying is run by a team of people from a wide range of Christian traditions, who both steer the organisation and plan and lead the journeys. All are volunteers.

We are always pleased to hear from people interested in discovering more about team membership. If you are inspired by the outdoors and membership is something that appeals to you, do email: info@journeying.co.uk or for more detail, visit the Leaders page of the Journeying website: www.journeying.co.uk
